Where Did You Park?

- Parking for this event is authorized ONLY in the Cultural Center Parking Lot. This parking lot is located in front of the Ernest Cultural Center and plainly marked by a green and yellow sign.

- If you're parked on campus in a place other than the Cultural Center parking lot, you may receive a parking ticket.

"You've got UNIX under the hood!" exclaimed this young Java programmer when the Pi attended the Digital Edge.

Help Build a Better Pi
