WAP Calendar

 All the WAP events and tutorials are listed on the calendar.

 Subscribe to it with iCal!

 View in a web browser!

 calendar.wap.org

WebTCS

webtcs.wap.org

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the title "TCS Sign In". The address bar contains "http://webtcs.wap.org/". The browser's search bar has "rocking chair" entered. The page features a navigation bar with links to PHP.net, Apple, Amazon, eBay, Yahoo!, News, Mac, Design, and NRL. A banner at the top says "welcome to the New TCS" with a penguin illustration. Below this is a "TCS sign in" section with input fields for "Account name:" and "TCS password:", and a green "sign in" button. To the right is a "want a peek?" section with text: "(If you're a Pi member without a TCS subscription, click on the Guest Pass for instructions on how to get a tempting sneak preview)". Below the sign-in section is a "more info" section with text: "Enter account name and password in lower case. Be sure to enable cookies. For information on TCS services including e-mail and dial-up as well as the bulletin board, see the FAQ." A red "Guest Pass" button is positioned to the right of the "more info" section. At the bottom, a copyright notice reads "Copyright © 2000-2002 Washington Apple Pi, Ltd".
